is firm, resourceful and immediate.
I have seen him shoot down one of his own officers, and a few minutes later shed tears as he gave money and water to a wounded boy.
After intimate association with the armies of both sides and the men who command them in Mexico, I unhesitatingly say that the future of that unhappy nation rests in the hands of the Constitutionalist leaders.

From the standpoint of a British officer, I say that it is essential to recognize the Constitutionalist as the only force in Mexico. Carranza, whom I personally know, is one of the clearest, most intelligent men I have met. He is an idealist, just, fair and kind —a leader of whom any nation might be proud.

Death in Handfuls.
I witnessed the beginning of the terrible fighting which will be going on at Ojinaga. Though myself removed from the immediate zone of fire, my field glasses brought the incidents of the battle before me as if I were there.
I could touch the naked Yaguis with my hand.

I saw the Indians, each wearing only a loin-cloth and his cartridge belt, creep from sage-bush and cactus clump, closer and closer to the federal fighting line where Generals Salazar and Orozco had their men intrenched.
It was a splendid display of courage and warcraft.

Two women led them, one a Yaqui and the other a Mexican.
But the ground was open and no thing came to hinder them. The federal machine guns were too far away to be of any use. The Indians came to the front, rushed the Indians and Mexicans crumpled and went down while the Yaquis advanced to the front. Death came in handfuls. One man would be pierced by half a dozen bullets.

More than 500 fell while I watched the battle from 5 o'clock to midnight.
After then, after the darkness had fallen, both sides took up a heavy cannonading and bursting shells were everywhere.

Shells Fire City.
There were good artillery marksmen on both sides. Soon the city was in flames and a federal gunner, at a range of four miles, dropped a shell upon it, in 100 yards of where General Ortega was conversing with W. H. Cleveland of Marfa, Texas.

I have likened Villa to Napoleon, but it is in deeds not in stature that he resembles the great Frenchman. Villa is a perfect physical specimen of manhood. He is 6 feet 9 inches in height, weighs 180 pounds and is less than 10 years old.

He is absolutely fearless. The rule of iron that he has installed is demanded by the conditions under which he acts. Lawless Indians, Yaquis, bandits and wild adventurers from all quarters are gathered under his direction. His discipline must be maintained. He fights with the weapon the Lord has provided and he uses them as he must.

Order Against Drunkenness.
"I have issued an order against drunkenness," said Villa, drawing his automatic pistol. "That order is absolute," he shouted the officer dead.
Turning to other members of his staff he said: "How can we hope to

AND STABBED GIRL
UNTIL SHE EXPIRED
Little Falls, N. Y., March 20.—Gean of Miss Lydia Beecher, the young school teacher who was found beaten and stabbed to death in the woods near Poland, says in his confession, which was made Saturday and disclosed today, that he had asked Miss Beecher to be his mistress in the Poland high school, from which he was expelled after the young woman's instigation.

Before their arrival, Miss Beecher became frightened, he said, and insisted upon returning. Glavin declared he then hit her with a switch which he had carried in his pocket and knocked her down. Then he beat her, dragged her body into the bushes, went home and to bed.

Control the men when the officers disobey?"

I admire the judgment shown by President Woodrow Wilson in refusing to recognize the tyrant and grafter Vi-ctoriano Huerta, whom I have known off and on for two years. He is a clever soldier, but that is all I can say of him.

But since the United States refuses to recognize Huerta, it seems absolutely necessary to recognize some government of Mexico which will continue in place.

One incident in the battle at Ojinaga stands out like a prayer at a prize-fight.

At midnight "Cease firing" sounded in the federal trenches. As the notes of the bugle faded a hand struck up a dirge.

Mingled with the moans of the dying, the notes flung across the Rio Grande, to the camps of the American border patrol and Mexican refugees.
Then the carnage was forgotten, the band playing lively tunes to cheer the dejected ranks.

Die in Solitude.
Federal and rebel wounded alike were brought to the American side, disarmed and permitted to crawl to the refuge camp. Many died en route, wiping wounds, dying on the field of battle before the break of New Year's day.

No Heavy American Guns.
Should the rebels and federal forces fight, guns on the American side, they could wipe out the American soldiers, citizens and refugees within fifteen minutes.

The border patrol force there has no heavy guns and no machine guns. The commander sends word every day for the Mexicans not to fire across the Texas line. But what good does that do, when he has nothing to back up his demands?

When England says, "you must not do it," she has guns to back it up. It means that the United States loses prestige when it tells the Mexicans they can't do certain things and then fails to enforce order.

EDMONTON NEWSIE SETTER OF DEATH AS WAR PRISONER

Pittie Ryan, Well-known in City, Walking Round World, Has Many Adventures.

ARRESTED FOUR TIMES AS A SPY IN SOUTH AFRICA

On Visit to South Africa Visits General Botha and Lord Gladstone.

Pittie Ryan, the "newsboy," who is walking round the world for a prize of $4,000, paid an unexpected visit to Cape Town recently. He has been in South Africa for some little time, having turned his passage from Australia to Durban. The mother city of South Africa is not in Ryan's route, but he has come here to get his book signed by Lord Gladstone, as he missed him in Pretoria.

Ryan has already covered 32,540 miles, in Pretoria, that is, and sells newspapers and postal cards to pay his expenses. "Newsboy" is rather a misnomer, as Pittie Ryan is now 29 years of age, and has sold newspapers for 22 years.

In Johannesburg he met Sir Lionel Phillips and General Botha, who signed his book. "He treated me finely, and I had a fine chat with him," is Ryan's opinion of the hon. member for Cape Province, and of General Botha, he says, "He was a very fine man to me."

During his trip Ryan has had many adventures, having been to Mexico and South America. He says that he was arrested four times as a spy, and the last time he escaped by his own wits. He was arrested in the city of war, but a motor-car took him away in good time. He returned to the U. S. A. and from San Francisco managed to work his passage to the Hawaiian Islands, and then went to Suva, New Zealand, and Australia.

Lonely Homesteader "Shuffles Off" by the Suicide Route

Jacob Hopp Living West of Wetaskiwin Shoots Self Through Head With Rifle—Appeared to Realize He Was Slowly Becoming Insane.

Realizing that he was gradually becoming insane and being without friends or relatives, Jacob Hopp, a homesteader living west of Wetaskiwin, came to the conclusion that he was shooting himself through the head with a .22 calibre rifle.

The first word of the occurrence was received in Wetaskiwin by two brothers named Sinclair, who had been in the vicinity of the man's shack when they heard the shot. Unstable Ward of the Edmonton detachment of the R. N. W. M. P. was detailed on the case. Arriving at Wetaskiwin on March 21, the officer took a team and started for the man's shack. It was Monday before the constable arrived here, when he found Hopp in an unconscious condition. Constable Ward could not find the unfortunate man as he was already beyond expression, and a few hours later expired.

could be obtained from the neighbors, Hopp had been about the place for some time. He was not known to

THOUGHT LIBERALS WOULD ADOPT TORY UNDERHAND POLICY

Ruthenians Near Vegreville Start More Trouble Over Language Question.

THEY WILL NEVER —AGAIN VOTE FOR GRITS

Minister of Education Refuses to Accept Implied Bribe.

Last year the trustees of the Inkwin school district north of Vegreville undertook to hire a man named W. A. Cramer, a Ruthenian from Montreal, holding no qualifications entitling him to teach school in this province, to teach their school. As soon as it was discovered that Mr. Fletcher, supervisor of foreign schools, informed the board that qualified teachers were available and they must employ a qualified teacher.
This they refused to do. All efforts to induce them to comply with the law having failed, Mr. Fletcher was appointed official trustee of the district. Trouble arose over getting possession of the school house and it became necessary to prosecute some of the disturbers and they were fined. Cramer, the dismissed teacher, assisted by his friends, the disturbers, induced the people then to erect a little log school house and he conducted private school in the building until Christmas.

In the meantime the treasurer paid out considerable money, some of it Cramer and some to pay the expenses and costs of the men who were fined.
The district, accompanied by Mr.
Fletcher, called on the minister of education at the parliament buildings and requested the minister to remove Mr. Fletcher as official trustee and permit them to conduct their own schools. They stated frankly that they intended to hire a Ruthenian teacher. They were informed by Mr.
Fletcher that he would not be the slightest objection to their employing a Ruthenian teacher if he held a certificate of qualification entitling him to teach in the schools of this province. This, however, was not satisfactory to them.
They claimed the right to have their own teachers in their school whether qualified or not. They stated that in the province of Manitoba their Ruthenian friends were permitted to employ Ruthenian teachers without the regular qualifications and were permitted to use in their schools text-books printed in the Ruthenian language and thought that they were entitled to the same privileges here.

Mr. Boyle pointed out that they are receiving exactly the same treatment as other people; that the department maintains the same type of school for all citizens in this country; and has the same standard of qualification for teachers. All teachers who prepare themselves in accordance with this standard are granted certificates to teach school no matter what their religion or nationality may be.

They then informed him that they had been liberals in politics and that if the liberals did not grant them what they considered to be the privileges they were entitled to the conservatives would do so if given a chance.
They pointed out that their people were receiving concessions from the government in the past and that if the liberals in Alberta were not prepared to grant them similar privileges the Ruthenians in the province would vote against the liberals and put them out of office at the first opportunity.

Mr. Boyle informed them that if the liberals had to retain office in Alberta by granting special privileges to a few races of people they did not wish to retain office and that the government would be glad to establish any special type of school in any settlement in the province that they were receiving the same treatment as all the other races and in his opinion ought to be satisfied. The minister advised them to go home, send their children to school as they had been doing before the trouble occurred and demonstrate to the department that they were prepared to comply with the law and when the department was satisfied from the actions of the people in the district that they could be relied on to conduct their own school in accordance with the law. Mr. Fletcher would be glad to be official trustee and they would be permitted to have their own schoolboard.

TAKING PORTFOLIO OF WAR HEARD AS A BIG SURPRISE

Walks Dramatically From the Chamber Amid Remarkable Demonstration.

ALL EFFORTS TO INDUCE GENERALS TO STAY FAUL

Colonel Pays Penalty of His Indiscretions in Adding to Document.

London, March 26.—Colonel Seely's resignation has been accepted.
This was the expression emanating from Asquith in announcing in the House of Commons today that the war secretary had paid the penalty of his indiscretion in adding the cabinet document that two paragraphs which have aroused such feeling as to threaten the existence of the entire cabinet.

The first information received by members of parliament that Colonel Seely had definitely retired from the cabinet was when he entered the house and took a seat on the back benches, instead of among his late colleagues.
The paragraph which caused the crisis were contained in a memorandum written to Brigadier General Dough and contained the following:
"The government must retain its right to use all the forces of the crown in Ireland and must maintain order and suppress the civil power in the ordinary execution of their duty. It has no intention whatever of taking advantage of this right in order to crush political opponents but to preserve the principle of the home rule bill."

The later repudiation of these enun-ciations by the cabinet was taken to rebut by Sir John Ewart, the adjutant general to the forces, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the former chief of the Imperial general staff.

In Nature of Surprise.
The two generals immediately resigned and all efforts made by the king, the premier and the other ministers, failed to induce them to change their minds. Their resignations were made definite today.

Premier Asquith's further announcement that he himself would take up the portfolio of secretary for war came in the nature of a surprise. Having announced his intention to take up the office he declared he would retire from the house of commons in accordance with the last clause of the statute to sanction his return.

The premier then dramatically walked out of the chamber amid frantic cheering from the liberals, the nationalists and the labor members, the winds of which were blowing in their faces and waving handkerchiefs and papers as he left.

Mr. Asquith, having accepted "an office of profit under the crown" must return to his constituency of East Fife, Scotland, for re-election.
On the last occasion he received 5,145 votes against the 2,356 of his opponents.

When Premier Asquith entered the house today he was greeted with a cheer from the liberals and the nationalists. He was seated with the ministerial side. He soon afterwards rose before the crowded chamber to make his resignation statement in the army crisis.

Consumption Takes Hundreds of People

The names of the avenues south of Jasper avenue have been changed in order to denote that they are not in a region where the climate is so cold. The alphabetically arranged: i.e. Victoria avenue becomes Victoria Drive, Markay Avenue becomes Markay Drive, and the name of the Hardy Drive, and as the name of the Saskatchewan Avenue would conflict with Saskatchewan street in the city of Saskatoon, it has been altered to Parliament Road.

The names south of what is the ex-terminus of Jasper avenue beyond Glenora have been alphabetically named after trees. Jasper avenue having been the last, it was naturally named after cypress, the first of the other should commence at the first avenue south of Jasper, etc.

With regard to the numbering system, McLeod avenue was taken as the base. This makes the distance from Jasper place to the growth of the city in Jasper place and Capital Hill much the same as the distance from the base to the growth of the city in the city of Saskatoon.

Formerly the numbers of houses in the street were not uniformly with the numbers of the lots on either side of the street, and the numbers on the side on which odds and even numbers respectively are used. This is the case in the city of Chicago, the numbers on only north and west sides is as the universal practice elsewhere. The city of Chicago, however, retains much that is already established and familiar. It also substitutes a logical and easily understood system of numbering, discarded, and allows of infinitely extension as the city grows in any direction.

It is not essential that a street name should carry across the river, so as to be the same on both sides. The number of the river, insofar as it can indicate in some definite manner what portion of the city is on each side of the river. Any system which attempts to make a common street name for both sides of the river is bound to lose the definite distinction in location between north and south, is bound to produce confusion.

The first query that comes into a person's mind when he hears a street name is, what is the location of the street? Is it on the north side, or the south side? One who knows whether he must head for a bridge or not.

ROSHANARA WORLD FAMOUS INDIAN DANCER ORPHEUM STAR TONER

A vaudeville bill which promises to be one of the most enjoyable in many weeks, is outlined for the Empire theatre, the first half of this week, starting with a matinee this afternoon. Two distinguished headliners are announced in Roshanara and Theodore Roberts, each act distinctive in character, but presented by artists who have achieved enviable reputations in their respective lines of entertainment. Roshanara, through her performance of the native ceremonial dances of India, has become the most fascinating dancer before the public. The mystery of the land of "somewhere east of Suez," is caught when the opening curtain discloses the gates of a temple enveloped in murky shadows, and illuminated against the Indian sky. The spotlight centres upon the dancer—slim and little—standing upon the steps. It is the incense ceremony of a young widow dedicating herself to eternal service in the temple. In her upraised hands is a vase of incense, and the subsequent dance embraces with its atmosphere of tragedy a religious fervor. Other dances which follow are "The Snake Dance," "The Snake Dance," both fascinating in the vividness of their portrayal. The name "Roshanara" might indicate that this talented girl was a native Indian, but such is not the case, as although she has spent a lifetime in India, her father is the English governor of one of the provinces, and it is for that reason she has assumed the Hindu name.

PANTAGES FEATURE "THE SOUL KISS" IS DRAMATIC FAVORITE

"The story of 'The Soul Kiss' is one that for consistency outshines most of the works of the recent playwrights and musical comedy librettists. It is based on the story of the girl who, like Faust, sells her soul to Satan for vain love. She wishes to win a young and good looking artist. She must become one of Satan's own if she fails to win him and then Satan sets about finding him a wife in order that he may claim the forfeit. Every type of woman he brings him from the voluptuous Cleopatra to the cold American beauty who cannot love but must be loved. In the play they meet. The girl strikes out one good and beautiful. He hates to do it, for he knows that in the doing he loses that pair at least. He does it and the men feel the soul kiss for which he had searched, while Satan takes the forfeit of the woman who has bargained away her soul.

The piece is well staged and some excellent dancing will be given by the company and chorus while from a scene standpoint nothing is lacking to make the production a repetition of the famous success which it attained as a legitimate attraction.

"The Military Salesman" a humorous comedy, contrary to the popular belief produced by Joe. Remington and his company will be the added attraction for the week. The play is a comedy of manners and features with a hilarious 15 minutes of mirth and melody will purvey plenty of laughter and the Warrenton brothers, a duo of dexterous up-side-down lunging feats will supply the remainder part of the act and will be complimented by Scott and Wallace a song and dance team who have an act stamped with individualism.

"GIRL IN THE TAXI" OPENS TONIGHT AT LYCEUM THEATER

To commence in detail the various features of "The Girl in the Taxi," which the Lyceum players will produce at the Lyceum theatre, all night, starting with the usual performance Monday night, would require the recitation of a first-class adding machine.

"The Girl in the Taxi" is from the pen of William Henry, who is best known for his English comedies. His most successful output in the past, the Lyceum company will use this week. After a successful success in Paris, London and other European cities, "The Girl in the Taxi" came to America, where it was the Actor theatre, New York where it was hailed as one of the most hilarious contemporary comedies.

The Lyceum management has gone to great lengths to give patrons of that theatre the finest scenic production and the most expert cast possible. Ethel Corley will assume the name of the heroine, and William Yule will play the part of the villain. The play is a comedy of manners and features with a hilarious 15 minutes of mirth and melody will purvey plenty of laughter and the Warrenton brothers, a duo of dexterous up-side-down lunging feats will supply the remainder part of the act and will be complimented by Scott and Wallace a song and dance team who have an act stamped with individualism.

JOHN BUNNY WILL AMUSE PATRONS OF EMPRESS TWO NIGHTS

John Bunney, one of the rotund club-farm, fat and funny face, is back again in a Vitaphone comedy that is one of the best features on the program. No picture player has secured such a tremendous success as Bunney and his comedies. He possesses a "picture face" that makes him one of the highest salaried players for the time being. "The Schenker" is the title of his comedy. There is a fact that this well seasoned henpecked wife of his, plays as his better half in this picture.

But time and environment make momentous changes. The girl became a society lady—the duke found his dream of peace, pipe and shippers shattered almost overnight. And the wife cried herself to sleep until she had upon a plan. So the duke's most mysterious became as tough as the hide of a crocodile—frankly heroic, masqueraded as an enchanting stories were all there but the climax.

COURT MUST SEE CONTRACTS OF PITTSBURG PLAYERS

Hot Springs, Ark., March 26.—Contracts between the Pittsburgh National League and its players will be exhibited in court here Thursday as a result of a decision by Chancellor J. F. Henderson in injunction proceedings of the Pittsburgh club against S. H. Camnitz and other agents of the Federal league.

Contracts Private Property.

The chancellor previously had indicated that to prove contract relations between club and player the contracts should be exhibited in court. WINNIPEG CREW MAY BE BARRED AT HENLEY RACE Entries of Eight-oared Crews From States and Canada Not Accepted.

New York, March 26.—It remains with the board of stewards of the Royal Henley Regatta of England to decide whether or not the regatta, to be held July 2, 3 and 4, shall be added to those events of 1914 already on the international list of sporting competitions. Both the Winnipeg Rowing club of Winnipeg, and the Union Boat club, of Boston, have announced their intention of entering eight oared crews in the Grand Challenge event of one mile, 550 yards. The report is also current that a Philadelphia club is considering the possibility of a similar entry. The question of the acceptance of these entries rests entirely with the Henley stewards, who have in the past demonstrated an adherence to a very strict code of eligibility. It is understood that the Boston club has received assurance that the entry of its eight would be acceptable to the Henley stewards. What negotiations if any, the Winnipeg or Philadelphia clubs have entered into, are not known at this time.

American Crew Never Win.

The grand challenge cup, the chief and perpetual trophy of the Henley regatta, which was instituted in 1829, has not been won by an American crew in the recent years of the regatta. Several attempts at its capture have been made by college crews including teams of Johns Hopkins and Cornell, but the final heat in every case witnessed a victory for the English eight.

The oarsmen for Belgium and Australia have been more successful, however, for the Royal club Nautique De Grande of Belgium, won the trophy seven times, sending winning crews to Henley in 1905, 1907 and 1909. In 1911 the Sydney Rowing club of Sydney, N. S. W., won. Foreign representatives indicate that there is a probability of an entry from one of those clubs for 1914 regatta.

PLANS FOR WALL TO PROTECT THE RIVER BANK HERE

Blueprint Approved by the Dominion Government Submitted to Commissioners

APPROXIMATE COST WILL BE $125,000

Banks Would Be Protected From Low Level Bridge to River Street.

The necessity of the city taking some immediate action in the matter of constructing a retaining wall on the north side of the Saskatchewan river from River street to 100 feet west of the level bridge was urged on the commissioners this morning. A blue print showing a proposed retaining wall consisting of three rows of piling with proper filling was laid on the table and a description of the same was given.

Approved by Government. It was pointed out by the delegation that if the city will take up the project now that plans for the work have been approved the government will assist in the undertaking. However if the city is not ready to go ahead the gentlemen present stated that they would be willing to go on with the work providing the city will give the necessary land.

Commissioner Harrison at this point remarked that this is the first time that the proposition has been put in this form, that is a definite offer on the part of some individuals to actually go ahead and build the wall if granted permission.

It was also pointed out that the government will probably cost $100,000 toward the cost which has been estimated roughly at $125,000. This project has been before the city and the government for many years and is no further advanced apparently. Thirteen years ago the government voted $10,000 to start the undertaking and promised to put $10,000 yearly in financing and completing the undertaking, but a portion of the first $10,000 was spent in building a wharf at the foot of the level bridge and since that time nothing further has been done.

Danger is imminent. In dealing with the urgent need for this retaining wall it was shown this morning that since 1892 there has been a movement in the bank of the river and if this is not checked soon property on which buildings have been erected along the bank of the hill will be in serious danger.

The blue prints showing the proposed retaining wall were turned over to the commissioners this morning and will be carefully considered from an engineering standpoint and submitted to council when it will be determined what action, if any, will be taken this year toward getting this proposition under way.

WORK OF ALBERTA GOVERNMENT NOW BEARING FRUIT
A. W. Foley, provincial poultry superintendent, is of the opinion that the needed increase in the raising of poultry products which has been apparent in Alberta during the last few months is in a great measure due to the educational work carried on by the department of agriculture of the Alberta government.

However, he thinks that it will be a long time before a regular export trade in poultry and eggs can be worked up in the province. During the year ending March 31, for instance, 1,354,110 dozens of eggs were imported from the United States alone. While the number going into poultry and egg raising seems to be on the increase, he says, the consuming population within the province is also fast growing, and the only remedy is a general back to the land movement.

Where is Ralph Stevens? The police have been asked to help in locating Ralph Stevens, who is supposed to be near Edmonton. Chief Lacey was in receipt of a telegram from the chief of police of Portsmouth, Ohio which stated that the man's father was dead and that Stevens was wanted.

AGRICULTURISTS NOW GETTING INTERESTED IN MIXED FARMING
The farmers in the Millet district evidently look upon dairying as a profitable branch of the diversified farming industry, as when 123 dairy cows were sold by auction recently they brought from $79 to $125 each, or a total of about $14,000, and most of the sales were for cash.

The Edmonton City Dairy company sold the cows, after it had disposed of its 800-acre farm near Millet to Thomas West of Edmonton, who ran it as a stock farm. The dairy company has run it as a dairy farm for the past few years, but at the same time has been buying most of its milk from farmers in the vicinity.

TAKE UP DUTIES.
L. P. Clarry, who until recently was deputy attorney-general of the province, will leave for Calgary this week to take up the duties of his new position, master-in-chambers there.

Nervine Eases Neuralgia, Brings Relief Instantly
No Remedy Like Old "Nervine" to Cure Pain or Soreness.
That terrible ache—how you fairly reel with it—that stabbing burning neuralgia—what misery it causes. Never mind, you don't have to suffer. Nervine! It's a sure cure. Not an experiment, because nearly forty years of wonderful success has made its name for Nervine among the people of many different nations. "There is nothing sweeter to end Neuralgia headache than old-time 'Nervine,'" writes Mr. G. C. Dalglish, from Vancouver. "It is so powerful and penetrating that it seems to cut up any pain in a minute. My family could get along without sleeping. We always keep the old family size bottle handy on the shelf, and use it to end chest colds, sore throats and neuralgia, toothache and pain in the back. My wife swears by Nervine. For cramps its effect is astonishing and we believe it is better and speedier than any other household remedy."

SOUTH SIDE NOTES
The regular weekly meeting of the Young People's society of Holy Trinity church, south side, will be held tonight at 8 o'clock, when a specially prepared program will be given. To all members of the society, a cordial invitation is extended. The program includes a debate on Labor vs. Capital, followed by some spiritual musical numbers.

A concert is being held in the Highland Park mission tent at 8 o'clock, for which a highly entertaining and pleasing program will be held. A number of the leading artists of the city will take part, and the proceeds will go toward the installation of the electric lights in the mission hall.

The students of the south side high school are preparing for a grand concert early next month. Included in the program will be a play entitled "Mrs. Biggs of the Poultry Yard," which promises to be one of the funniest sketches ever seen in a long while put on by the high school amateurs.

Magistrate Downes of the south side on Saturday, imposed a $10 fine and $2.45 costs on W. A. Seeger, for speeding in the city limits. Seeger, charged with false pretences, was remanded till Tuesday, when his full trial will be held. Seeger's motorcycle was charged with having run at an excessive rate of speed, but there was not sufficient evidence to prove the charge and he was dismissed.

A public meeting was held in Carman church, Bonnie Doon, on Friday night, under the auspices of the Independent Order of Good Templars. Speeches were given by Rev. S. S. Sheldon, of Bonnie Doon, Baptist church, A. M. McRoberts of the Alberta News, and E. J. Rios of Carman. The meeting was presided over by T. R. Mayron, and a splendid musical program was given by Messrs. Gilchrist, Loughhead and Cooper. "Temperance" was the topic of the addresses of the evening, and some severe criticisms were made upon the state of the world, and the city of Edmonton and Alberta at the present time, but it was believed that the time is not far distant when the present price will be under the laws of prohibition.

WILL TAKE "MOVIES" OF PEACE RIVER TO ADVERTISE COUNTRY
D. C. MacMillan, manager of the Progress Photo company of Calgary, spent the weekend in Edmonton. Mr. MacMillan during last year took a large number of motion pictures indicative of life in Alberta, among which were some of the city of Edmonton, which were shown widely throughout Canada, the United States and Great Britain.

Speaking on the matter of publicity, Mr. MacMillan stated yesterday that the King Edward hotel that moving pictures constituted one of the most valuable forms of advertising any country, being in his opinion much more realistic than the written word. Regarding Canada, for instance, he said that in spite of the vast amount of publicity work being carried on, there was still a great portion of the people in the old country and the states having no idea that modern cities with equal or even better facilities than some of their own existed in the west.

Mr. MacMillan thought that the same opinions were prevalent regarding the great resources of the west. Such industries as coal mining shown by moving pictures would have wonderful results in the west. He believes that it is a matter which the Dominion and various provincial governments are bound to take up. Mr. MacMillan stated that during the coming season he would take "movies" extensively of Edmonton and the country north and west of the city.
